If you are writing about a project

A first email that covers these four things usually gets a same-week reply:

- The problem, in a paragraph.
What hurts today and what better would look like.
- Your stack and team.
Languages, platforms, and rough team size.
- The constraints that matter.
Deadlines, budget range, and rules like 'code and data cannot leave our network'.
- Where you are in the decision.
Exploring options, comparing consultants, or ready to start.
